JUNE 2017

TO GOD BE THE GLORY FOR THE GREAT THINGS HE HAS DONE and WILL DO!

CALLING ALL PRAYER WARRIORS and ENCOURAGERS!

“Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these” (Matthew 19:14)

Dear Pray Warriors,

In her book, “Having a Mary Heart in a Martha World”, Joanna Weaver states that “Jesus chose men without resumes, without formal education, with no previous evangelical work experience. He saw in them exactly what he needed- followers with the potential for transformation.” She also quotes Paul W. Powell as saying, “God is more concerned about our character than our comfort. His goal is not to pamper us physically but to perfect us spiritually.”

As I read on, this sentence jumped out at me: “Martha thought she had value because she was productive. Jesus wanted her to learn she had value simply because she was his.” During last month’s prayer retreat, this became so real to me. While Miss Lisa has been on medical leave, my responsibilities have increased and I was literally exhausted when I went to the prayer room. Finding the prayer shawl and turning on the praise music, led me to the chair where I felt the LORD wrap HIS arms around me and I rested. Yes, I even fell asleep. And when I awoke from the rest, I was still physically tired, but spiritually ready to go.

During these past 2 months, the physical tiredness has set in and yet HIS strength comes forth when it is time to present a program. The surveys that are returning indicate that HE has done it, even though the audience does not realize what has been happening. It was apparent that God wanted to increase my faith more and perfect me spiritually. HE has done exactly that. HE continues to work on my character and I know today that I am HIS!

Since March I have been asking the LORD, “What do YOU want me to learn from Miss Lisa’s illness that I might grow closer to YOU?” Oh I want to be as Matthew 19:14 says- “a little child” who learns quickly because I don’t have preconceived ideas that keep me from hearing something new from the LORD and receiving it as coming from HIM.

HE has been faithful to show me! I am learning quicker! Thank you for your prayers! Miss Donna

¹⁶ “You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you.” (John 15: 16-17)

Please continue to pray for me to walk in the following ways with the LORD:

- 1. Separate myself regularly (Ex. 33:7) and come apart from the crowds and busyness.
- 2. Seek God with all my heart (Ex. 33:7) pursuing truth over popularity.
- 3. Be willing to take a risk, (Ex. 33:8) even though it feels intimidating to be watched and scrutinized by the public. This is truly humbling.
- 4. Learn to listen and obey God's voice (Ex. 33:9) by practicing the patience of silence and submission, especially as I seek HIM concerning my continued involvement with Kingdom Kidz.
- 5. Enter a covenant partnership with God (Ex. 33: 10-11) being faithful and committed as a trustworthy partner with God.
